

Title: Annual Report of Gram Bharti 2012-2013

Gram Bharti implemented a PACS II project “Empowering girls and women of socially excluded groups to acquire equity and to secure rights of basic services and livelihood” through GNK, on livelihood, health nutrition and education for the SC/ST/ excluded communities in 20 villages of Kushinagar district. The activities included organisation building and training of the women & youth, seminar, interface etc.

Gram Bharti has implemented fuel conservation programme of PCRA. The activities under this project included Workshops, IEC sharing and demonstrations were organized for different groups and communities including the school students, housewives, farmers and drivers in 5 districts of UP.

With the support of MAMTA - Health Institute of Mother and Child, New Delhi, Gram Bharti implemented a project entitled ‘Axhyay” for TB Control in 50 villages in 2 blocks of Deoria district, UP. On the basis of community-based approach, the activities included meetings, mid-media activities, identifying rural health care providers, TB suspects, defaulters, sputum collection and provide the related services.